Important Notice to Injury Tracking Application Users

Thank you for visiting this Department of Labor (DOL) Web site application. You are accessing a U.S. Government information system that is owned and operated by the Department of Labor. DOL is strongly committed to maintaining the privacy of personal information you provide and the security of information on DOL computer systems. DOL uses contractors to perform various website and database functions and makes sure that such arrangements ensure the security, confidentiality and integrity of any personal information.

As a general rule, DOL does not collect personally-identifying information unless you choose to provide such information to us. With respect to the collection, use and disclosure of personal information, DOL makes every effort to ensure compliance with applicable federal law, including, but not limited to, The Privacy Act of 1974 , The Paperwork Reduction Act of 1995, and The Freedom of Information Act. We may disclose to you and others the information you provide us if authorized by you or as authorized or required by Federal law.

Please be aware that fraud and related activity in connection with computers is prohibited by Title 18, U.S. Code Section 1030. Furthermore, this law states that intentionally accessing a computer without authorization or exceeding authorized access and thereby obtaining information from any department or agency of the United States is prohibited and subject to civil and criminal penalties, including (but not limited to), punishment by fine and/or imprisonment. DOL may provide law enforcement with any potential evidence of a crime found on aforementioned systems in order for them to investigate such offenses.

In addition, it is unlawful to make any materially false, fictitious, or fraudulent statement to an agency of the United States. Violations can be punished by a fine or by imprisonment of not more than five years, or by both. See 18 U.S.C. 1001(a); 29 U.S.C. 666(g). Uses of this application also should keep in mind that it is unlawful to make any false statement, representation filed or required to be maintained pursuant to the OSH Act. Violations can be punished under Section 17(g) of the OSH Act by a fine of not more than $10,000, or by imprisonment of not more than 6 months, or by both.
